DETAILED ACTION

Claims 23-44 are pending in instant application

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I. Claims 23-33, drawn to an oral pharmaceutical or dietary composition containing at least one short-chain fatty acid or salt, ester and/or amide thereof, in combination with a complex sugar and/or dietary fibre.

Group II. Claims 34-44, drawn to method for the treatment of intestinal disorders, inflammatory disorders, and pathological conditions of the intestinal mucous membrane and for the preventive or limiting treatment of intestinal neoplasia which comprises the administration of a pharmaceutical or dietary composition comprising a short-chain fatty acid in combination with a soluble dietary fibre in which the complex sugar and/or dietary fibre is selected from inulin, pectin, dextrin, maltodextrin or derivatives thereof.

2. As set forth in Rule 13.1 of the Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT), "the international application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept." Moreover, as stated in PCT Rule 13.2, "where a group of inventions is claimed in one and the same international application, the requirement of unity of invention referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features." Furthermore, Rule 13.2 defines "special technical features" as "those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art."

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature of Groups I-II is a pharmaceutical or dietary composition comprising a short-chain fatty acid in combination with a complex sugar and/or dietary fibre. As disclosed in WO 02/02102 (Bird), the pharmaceutical or dietary composition comprising a short-chain fatty acid in combination with a complex sugar and/or dietary fibre is not novel. Bird teaches a pharmaceutical or dietary composition comprising a short chain fatty acid, such as butyrate (p.5, line 25), where the carrier is a complex sugar, such as inulin and pectin (p.13, lns.12-13). Also, Bird teaches that the carrier can be a natural dietary fibre (p.1, line 18). As such, Group I does not share a special technical feature over the prior art. Therefore, the claims are not so linked within the meaning of PCT Rule 13.2 so as to form a single inventive concept, and unity between Groups I-II is broken.

4. The examiner has required restriction between product and method claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product and use claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn method and use claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected method or use invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that method or use invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined method and use claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined method and use claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims, method and use claims may be maintained. Withdrawn method or use claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the method and use claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
